

SGX-ST Release

ASIAN PAY TELEVISION TRUST (“APTT”)

Terms used herein which are not defined have the same meanings ascribed to them in the prospectus of Asian Pay Television Trust (“APTT”) registered with the Monetary Authority of Singapore on 16 May 2013.

Singapore, 3 July 2017 – APTT Management Pte. Limited, as trustee-manager of APTT (the “Trustee-Manager”), today announced it has instructed (the “Transfer Instructions”) The Central Depository (Pte) Limited to transfer units of APTT (“APTT Units”) owned by holders of APTT Units who are PRC Persons (“Restricted Persons”) to a securities account controlled by the Trustee-Manager. These units will be sold by a broker-dealer on-market and the proceeds, net of selling costs, will be aggregated and paid to the Restricted Persons in proportion to their respective unitholdings as at the time of the Transfer Instructions.

Under the Measures Governing Investment Permit for the People of Mainland China Area, PRC Persons can only invest in certain business sectors in Taiwan allowed by the Investment Commission of the Ministry of Economic Affairs of Taiwan. The cable television industry is not currently on the list of sectors in which PRC Persons may invest in Taiwan. As such, PRC Persons are not allowed to own or control APTT Units given APTT’s sole asset is Taiwan Broadband Communications, a provider of cable television and broadband services in Taiwan.

As outlined in the APTT Prospectusⁱ and the APTT Trust Deedⁱⁱ, the Trustee-Manager has the power to require Restricted Persons to dispose of their APTT Unitsⁱⁱⁱ. Despite several notices, a limited number of Restricted Persons continue to own APTT Units as at 5.00pm on 30 June 2017. Accordingly, the Trustee-Manager has instructed The Central Depository (Pte) Limited to transfer the APTT Units owned by such Restricted Persons to a securities account controlled by the Trustee-Manager and will arrange for such APTT Units to be sold on-market by a broker-dealer. The proceeds, net of selling costs, will be aggregated and paid to the Restricted Persons in proportion to their respective unitholdings as at the time of the Transfer Instructions.

The Trustee-Manager will make a further announcement on completion of the sale.
